

PREPARING FOR YOUR VISIT

Visual Story

We are going to visit a museum and a very old ship called the SS Great Britain.

We will learn about the ship and have fun exploring.

When we arrive

When we arrive, we will speak to a staff member at the gates.

The staff member will tell us where to go.

If there are other people arriving at the same time, we might need to wait behind a white line.

People who can help us

They wear uniforms like these and also wear a badge. There is also sometimes someone dressed as Isambard Kingdom Brunel.

They might wear a face mask or a face shield.

When we go in

When we have our tickets and we are ready, we will walk through the shop, following the red arrows on the floor.

A staff member will check our tickets and we will walk through the entrance door.

There will be other people visiting so we need to stay with our group.

Places we might see or go to

Great Western Dockyard

Dockyard Museum

Ship

Dry Dock

Being Brunel Museum

Dock Office

Café

Shop

During our visit

There are arrows on the floor to show us which way to walk.

We will use hand sanitiser before we touch things.

We will use face coverings indoors if we are able to.

We will maintain social distance from other groups.

Some places will be light and open.

Other parts might be dark and narrow.

There are pretend people to help us imagine we are in the past.

We might hear pretend people talking and smell unusual smells.

Inside the ship

There is one entrance to go inside the ship.

We will follow arrows to walk around the ship.

We will walk past some pretend people.

If we do not want to go inside the ship, we can ask a staff member on the weather deck to guide us out.

Useful places

Toilets

Stairs

Lift

In different parts of the museum and ship these will look different.

If we hear a loud alarm it is time to stand still, quietly and calmly, until someone tells us what to do and where to go.

When it is time to go home

We will leave by walking through the shop.

We only leave when our group are all together.

To discuss specific access or educational needs please call 0117 926 0680 and ask to speak to the Visitor Experience Team.
